Clidive Lecture Series (CLS) 2019

"Positive Change for Sharks! Why, what and how?" Talk by Paul Cox, MD of the Shark Trust

When – 21st January 2019 Time – 7pm, Talk starts at 7:30pm and finishes appox. 8:30pm Where – Troy Bar, 10 Hoxton Street, London N1 6NG

Details

With the huge success of the Clidive lecture series in 2017 and 2018, we are super excited to have the Managing Director of the Shark Trust – Paul Cox, talk to us about the work they began in 1997 and the global future of this internationally renowned charity.

Without sharks, marine eco-systems face an uncertain future. The Shark Trust vision is "..a future where sharks, skates and rays thrive within a globally healthy marine ecosystem".

The Shark Trust is dedicated to safeguarding the future of sharks through positive change. They achieve this through science, education, influence and action.

Paul Cox, Managing Director of the Trust, is on a mission to talk up sharks and their future. He believes positivity plays a huge part in getting people across the world activated and inspired to protect these amazing animals. Paul will talk about the current challenges for shark and rays and the solutions that the Shark Trust are pushing through.

Please join us for this enlightening talk. The venue and bar will be open from 7pm for our exclusive use, including post-talk drink. Venue serves delicious Caribbean food. The talk starts at 7:30pm sharp and will finish around 8:30pm, there will be plenty of time to ask questions.

Tickets for this talk are £5 per person, please contact social@clidive.org if you wish to buy a ticket. All profits go to the Clidive 2019 charity - The Shark Trust https://www.sharktrust.org/